VISALIA, CA: The Fear Factory Haunted House, a place of unimaginable horror (and Halloween fun!) opens the doors to their asylum Friday, September 23, 2011.

Jeff Needham and Sean Elliott are the Braaaaaiiiins behind the all new Haunted Attraction in Visalia, The Fear Factory Haunted House. Needham and Elliott are both natives of Visalia, and attended Mt. Whitney High School and have chosen to stay in Visalia to raise their families. Over the years they have become known for their over-the-top extreme holiday decorations. Each year Needham hosts an extravagantly decorated Halloween Party at his house. He has long had a dream of expanding his passion for Halloween into a haunted house attraction for the community to attend. Needham and Elliott have teamed up to bring their expertise in extreme decorations to present an all new attraction in Visalia. They have strived to bring a different type of Haunt to our area that will test all of your senses!

The Fear Factory is located at 525 E. Acequia in Visalia, with easy access for Haunted House enthusiast from throughout the Central Valley and plenty of parking for everyone. Operating hours are Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Sundays 8PM-12MID, Fridays & Saturdays 8PM-2AM. There is also "Wimpy Wednesdays" from 6PM-8PM for the faint of heart!! Fear Factory will be open every day 8PM-2AM the week before Halloween. Call 559-627-FEAR or email fearfactoryhauntedhouse@yahoo.com

Opening night, September 23rd, brings a special appearance by Visalia native Rex Williams, known to science fiction fans worldwide as a medic/investigator on the hit SyFy network show "Destination Truth". This is your chance to meet Rex, get an autograph from one of paranormal activity's brightest stars, and take a tour of horror through Visalia's own Fear Factory Haunted House.
